LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Notice.

All subscribers to stock in the BUILDING ASSOCIATION, and all others interested in its formation, will meet for organization in the Senate Chamber this Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock.

—Delightful and timely showers.

—Concert at the Blind Institute—next Friday night.

—Hon. Marye Dabney of Edwards, was in the city Friday.

—The Board of Supervisors have been in session this week.

—Mr. Samuel Lemly has been quite ill during the past week.

—The Deaf and Dumb Institute will close its session on 22d inst.

—See notice of stolen horse, $25.00 reward, in another column.

—The Gem excursion to Natchez next Tuesday. Don't you forget it.

—Mr. James Smith reached his sixty-seventh birthday on Monday last.

—The Knights of Honor, Friday night. A full attendance is specially desired.

—Maj. Wolford has returned to the city after an absence of several weeks.

—The Institution for the Blind will close its present session on Wednesday, 27th inst.

—Miss Corabelle Wharton is visiting the family of her uncle, Judge Wharton, in this city.

—Capt. Wm. McWilliam and Hon. Robert Powell of the Canton bar were in the city yesterday.

—Miss Gertrude Drennan, daughter of Judge Drennan of Lexington, is visiting friends in this city.

—Mr. E. H. Nall and family have gone to Blount Springs, Ala., to spend the summer months.

—The Captain of the Capital Light Guards would like to see a full attendance at the drill tonight.

—Our townsman Mr. L. F. Chiles has been visiting the coast and making investments in that charming locality.

—W. L. Mitchell has removed his family from Brookhaven to Jackson, and is occupying the Whiting cottage.

—The receipts of the U. S. Land office, at Jackson, for the month of May amounted to $146,356.29! A booming business.

—The Board of Supervisors met Monday and after transacting a large amount of business adjourned late yesterday.

—As we go to press we learn that Miss Carrie Glenn, niece of Mrs. Judge Chambers, is still living, though her condition is hopeless.

—Capitol Grange No. 19, Col. L. F. Alford master, will meet at Union Church, on next Saturday, June 9th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

—The Hinds County Sabbath School Convention meets at Utica to-morrow. We hope the Jackson schools will be duly represented.

—Wonders & Robertson, the barbers, wish it known that they will not move from the square on which their shop is at present situated.

—Miss Ida Hunter has returned from Ward's Seminary, Nashville, where she has been attending school during the past session.

—We had the pleasure of a call on Thursday last from H. M. Sullivan, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Trustees of our State University.

—Mr. Wm. S. Lemly is recuperating on Cooper's Wolf water. He and his sister, Miss Rosa, have been at Raymond for the past two weeks.

—Capt. W. T. Ratliff, Chancery Clerk, having been attracted to the Capital by the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, favored with a visit yesterday.

—The surviving members of the Mississippi Rifles, residing in Jackson, are specially requested to be present at the reception to Mr. James Smith to-night.

—Jackson can boast of several "solid" men, and quite a number of considerable weight. Mayor McGill tips the beam at two hundred and forty pounds.

—We have had several slight showers and a heavy rain during the past week, but the crops are still suffering from the want of a good, drenching, continued rain.

—Mr. Thomas H. Kelly, late the clever agent for the Southern Express company at this place is now keeping books for Messrs. Meek & Potts, of Kosciusko.

—Harry Taylor is pushing toward completion the new brick residence for the Superintendent of Lunatic Asylum, which is in close proximity to the main building.

—Rev. Mr. Suroles, pastor of the Baptist church will be absent next Sabbath in the interest of the State Mission Board. Rev. C. Johnson will supply the pulpit.

—The closing exercises of Fair Lawn Institute will take place on Friday, 15th inst., commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. Patrons and friends are cordially invited to attend.

—Messrs. Henry Cameron and C. C. McGinty, two of Fayette's clever young men, took advantage of the excursion train yesterday to visit their friends at the State Capital.

—The Lawn Party advertised for Friday night last at Col. W. L. Nugent's residence was postponed until some time during this week, special notice of which will be given.

—The United States Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, which has been in session here during the past month, Judge R. A. Hill presiding, adjourned for the term on Saturday.

—The congregation of the Christian church who have been good enough to place their building at the disposal of Dr. Galloway's congregation, have entitled themselves to their grateful remembrance.

—It was our respected ex-townsman Mr. James Smith, who furnished the copper-guttering and tin-work for the University buildings at Oxford. The materials were hauled there in wagons from Jackson.

—The indications are that there will be no State Fair in Jackson next fall. There are difficulties in the way of the use of the grounds of the defunct Association, which can be remedied only by additional legislation.

—The excursion train from Natchez reached here yesterday between 1 and 2 o'clock. Quite a number of colored people were aboard and many whites. After visiting the principal places of interest in the Capital they repaired to the train, which left at an early hour last night.

—The Southern Express Company has rented the room now occupied by Wonders and Robertson's barber shop, on Capital street, and will in a few days have a fully equipped up-town Express office. This has been long needed in our city and we are glad to know that it is an assured fact.

—Mr. P. W. Taylor, a section-master of the Illinois Central Railroad, died at his residence in West Jackson on Friday last. The Masonic fraternity and Knights of Honor attended his funeral in large numbers. He was greatly esteemed by all who knew him. He had been sick only a few days.

—Mr. James Smith has purchased some land at Mumfordsville, Ky., including the spot where his gallant brother, Col. Robert A. Smith, was killed. It will be suitably enclosed, and a block of granite weighing twenty tons, erected thereon.

—The druggists of Mississippi will organize a State Pharmaceutical Association in Jackson next Tuesday. The attendance promises to be large. The druggists of Aberdeen, we are pleased to learn, will attend, instead of forming a separate Association, as at first proposed.

—Our respected townsman, Mr. Herbert Spangler, came to Jackson on 10th October, 1883. He came via the dirt road from Vicksburg, and the trip cost him the price of a tallow candle purchased for the wagon-driver at Clinton. The driver's name was Frost, and it happened to be a frosty morning when he arrived here.

—Mr. H. K. Hardy has a large force of first-class painters at work on the several contracts he has on hand, and in order to keep his force continuously employed will do all work in his line, for the next two months, on specially reasonable terms. His next big job will be the repainting of the Chamberlain House, Grenada.

—We are indebted to Col. C. P. Atmore, General Passenger Agent of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, for the largest and most complete railroad map and guide to summer resorts we have seen this season. A postal card addressed to the office at Louisville will doubtless secure a copy.

—Mr. Nolan Stewart and Miss Bessie Brunson have returned from the Peabody Normal College, Nashville. Mr. Stewart completed, with distinction, the prescribed course, and is now ready and thoroughly qualified to carry out the contract of teaching for at least two years. Miss Brunson will return to the college for another session.

—The meeting preliminary to the organization of a Builders' Association was well attended last Wednesday evening. Mr. R. L. Saunders, who is the projector of the enterprise, stated that one hundred and thirty thousand dollars had been subscribed. After some discussion, Messrs. T. E. Cooper, W. L. Nugent and W. L. Hemingway were appointed a committee to prepare a charter and a constitution and by-laws in harmony therewith, to report at a meeting to be held in the Senate Chamber at five o'clock this afternoon.

—Our venerable townsman, George Fearn, Esq., celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary on Friday last. A large number of his friends called to pay their respects. He has been confined to his room since last fall by the general infirmities of old age, but his voice is as strong and his mind seemingly as clear as ten years ago. Mr. Fearn came to Jackson in 1840, and up to the war period was one of its most active and successful business men, and has always been one of our most useful and esteemed citizens.

—Miss Alice Whittington, a pupil of the Institute for the Blind in this city, will give a concert at the Institute on Friday evening, June 8th, the object being to raise money to purchase an organ for herself. Miss Whittington has kindly and cheerfully assisted the various choirs of the city on many occasions, and we hope that her friends will show an appreciation of her kindness. She is deserving of a large attendance. Admission 50 cts. Tickets for sale at Ledbetter's Drug Store. Doors open 8 p. m.

—As conjectured in our last week's issue, our ex-townsman, Mr. James Smith, now of Glasgow, Scotland, arrived on Friday night last. A telegram from Capt. T. Otis Baker, Natchez, announced his coming, and he was received at the train by some friends who were advised of the fact. He will remain until Friday. He has met many of his old friends, who have discussed with him the days of "auld lang syne." Some of our old-time citizens have arranged for a complimentary banquet to-night at the residence of Mr. C. H. Manship, in order that all our people may have an opportunity of meeting Mr. Smith. All are most cordially invited.

—The first services in the new Methodist church building were held in the Sabbath School room last Sunday morning. Rev. W. L. C. Hunnicutt, Presiding Elder, officiated, it being the regular quarterly meeting Sunday, and the sacrament was administered. Considering the short notice given, quite a number were present. Dr. Galloway was unavoidably absent, owing to a previous engagement to preach the commencement sermon at Centenary College, Louisiana. This was a subject of regret to many, as it was felt to be peculiarly appropriate that he should be present at the opening services in the church which his untiring energy and constant labors have done so much to build. During the services Mr. Hunnicutt announced that a collection for the completion of the Sunday School room would be taken up instead of the regular Bishop's collection, and about $50.00 was realized. Services were also held at night.

Hunnicutt, Presiding Elder, officiated, it being the regular quarterly meeting Sunday, and the sacrament was administered. Considering the short notice given, quite a number were present. Dr. Galloway was unavoidably absent, owing to a previous engagement to preach the commencement sermon at Centenary College, Louisiana. This was a subject of regret to many, as it was felt to be peculiarly appropriate that he should be present at the opening services in the church which his untiring energy and constant labors have done so much to build. During the services Mr. Hunnicutt announced that a collection for the completion of the Sunday School room would be taken up instead of the regular Bishop's collection, and about $50.00 was realized. Services were also held at night.
